

Louis Moldonado, Fruita, Dies at Home of Parents

Louis Moldonado, who had been ill for some time, died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Moldonado, in Fruita at 7 p. m. Tuesday.

He was born Nov. 10, 1888, at Guadalupe, N. M., and he spent the first few years of his life there. He went to Trinidad when he was 10 years old and spent the majority of his life in Tinchera, a suburb of that city.

Mr. Moldonado, who never married, was engaged in the sheep business. He was a member of the Pentecostal church.

Surviving him besides his parents are three brothers, J. Z. Moldonado, San Fernando, Calif.; Ruben Moldonado, Nyssa, Ore., and Joseph Moldonado, Loma; and three sisters, Mrs. Ben Montoya, Grand Junction; Mrs. Ruben Garcia, Rocky Ford, and Mrs. Velentino Trujillo, Carbondale,

The body is at the Starks mortuary in Fruita, and no funeral arrangements have been made as yet.
