MYSTERIOUS DEATH OF AGED MAN NEAR THE CITY TODAY. An aged man, a stranger in this section, dropped dead this afternoon about 2 o'clock at a point on the Grand avenue road and just east of where the road crosses the railroad track. Late this afternoon Sheriff Schrader and Coroner Day were notified and the coroner will go out late this afternoon or early this evening. The body of the aged man was found by a young son of Mr. Allendar, a ranchman who resides near Clifton. Just after one of the west-bound passenger trains had been seen to pass the crossing the Allender boy, who was in a field, saw the old man walking away from the railroad track. He had a bundle of blankets on his shoulder. Suddenly the stranger dropped into the road. The boy, thinking that perhaps the man had been struck by the train and dangerously hurt, rushed over to him, only to find that the old man was dying. He lived but a few minutes, did not regain consciousness and did not regain consciousness and did not regain consciousness and did from heart failure. The remains will be brought to Grand Junction tonight and an effort made to establish the identity. Whether the old man was walking to this city is not known. The man appeared to be about 50 or 55 years of age.
