

On Tuesday of this week, scarcely more than a month after her elder sister, Edith, Miss Mary B. Haynes entered into the eternal rest. In her two weeks illness she was a great and yet a patient sufferer. The funeral services were held at the Ross school house, conducted by her pastor Rev. C. M. Jones, and attended by a large congregation. The body was laid to rest in the adjacent cemetery. In the death of those lovely young Christian sisters the Baptist church at Grand Junction and the whole community has suffered what seems an irreparable loss. Although with us hardly more than a year, they had endeared themselves by their earnest religious interest, and unaffected kindness of heart. The sincere sympathy of a wide circle of friends is extended in this sad time to the two brothers, Badger and John, and to the others of the family in the old North Carolina home.
