

The wedding will be solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, with only a small company of relatives and friends as guests. The Rev. J. W. Lothian will officiate and the only attendant will be Master Russell Overholzer, nephew of the bride, who will act as ring bearer.

After an extended wedding journey the bride and groom will make their home in Grand Junction.

Miss Lothian was for two years pianist at the First Methodist church and has many friends here. She is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Aupperle.

Orville B. Whipple is one of the prominent young men of the city. He is a graduate of the Colorado Agricultural college and has been in charge of the Western Slope experimental station here for some time.

Social and musical circles in Grand Junction will be glad to welcome Mrs. Whipple as a permanent resident here.

A number of pleasant companies have been given during the week for Miss Myrtle Lothian, whose marriage to Prof. Orville Whipple is to be celebrated Wednesday.

The first of these events was a pleasant reunion of college friends held at the home of Miss Fae Siman Saturday evening. Miss Faith Woodford of Sargeant Bluffs was present for this event.

Miss Daisy Slater gave an evening company Tuesday in honor of Miss Lothian. Twelve young women, members of the Whitfield Methodist Episcopal church, composed the guests. The event of the evening was a linen shower given the guest of honor.

Thursday evening the same company of friends were entertained at the home of Mrs. J. W. Manhood by Mrs. I. E. Nervig and Misses Carrie and Alta Gillan. A handkerchief shower was given Miss Lothian.

Mrs. J. W. Lothian, the bride's mother, and Mrs. W. W. Oberholzer of Sibley gave a 7 o'clock dinner Friday evening to a company of young women. Each place card was ornamented with a tiny lighted candle which was a token of good wishes. Receipts for managing a husband, etc., were written by the guests.—Sioux City Journal.

An elaborate card party was given at the La Court hotel yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Howard Fletcher and Mrs. Howard Platt, two of the popular young matrons of the city. The decorations were in red hearts and carnations and the room was very pretty indeed.

The game was flag whist, the players bringing their victories back to the table from which they started. The little Japanese nation represented by Mrs. Henry Mack, Mrs. Shackelford, Miss Baker and Miss Shackelford, was victorious and the players were awarded the prizes, hand decorated silver plates.

... to be the most vital thing that new and two committees were appointed to have charge of it. E. F. ... H. S. Graves and W. A. Woods were appointed on the coal committee and ... and A. V. Sharp on the oil committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Stout of Dragon are visiting friends here.

The Dragon department of the Fruit Mercantile store was sold today to Calthorpe Brothers of Salt Lake. This firm operates stores throughout Utah. The consideration was not made public but it is understood to be between eight and ten thousand dollars. G. W. Finneccium and daughter, Kate, will go to Dragon to take charge of the store.

The Bachelor Girls club met tonight at the home of Miss Edith Moore.

Mrs. S. W. Moore arrived here today to visit her son Elmer Moore. She is on her way to visit with other members of her family now in Wyoming.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dalley returned today from Grand Junction.

Rev. and Mrs. Richard Harper, the new pastor of the Congregational church, are expected to arrive here Friday. Their household effects have already gotten here and friends are busy fixing up the parsonage.

INDIAN BOY DIES FROM INJURY RECEIVED IN BASEBALL GAME
(From Thursday's Daily)

Ramon Simon, a 19 year old student at the Indian school, died at the school early Wednesday morning of tuberculosis of the knee. Baseball was the indirect cause of the boys death. He was injured in the knee last fall while playing the national game and he never recovered. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon, Superintendent Burton officiating.

Raymon Simon was a member of the Papago Tribe from Tuscon, Arizona. He as one of the brightest and most progressive students in the school. During the school year last year he was a member of the student body of the Western University. His death casts a gloom over the Indian school where Ramon was exceedingly popular.

IN THE FRUIT LINE.

(From Thursday's Daily)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—The Porter bill concerning standard packages, grades and marketing of apples was the subject of a prolonged conference among representatives of the apple ... throughout the United States.

Feb 6
1909
04 Feb?
Unknown
Newspaper