PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I mentioned in the last Quarterly about the importance of developing good genealogical research techniques and habits. Even more important is how soon we develop these habits. Before getting too far along in our research it is a good idea to choose a notekeeping system by examining the different methods used by other genealogists. You might want to talk to members of the Society who have been researching their genealogy for a number of years, or read a few of the how-to books.

There are many forms available to aid your organizational techniques and two widely used forms are the pedigree charts and family group sheets. When using a family group sheet it is a good idea to briefly document on the bottom or back of the sheet, the source for your data. Some other forms you may want to consider are a research calendar, research extraction sheet and a correspondence log.

The research calendar will allow you to show the date of your research, the source used and numerous helpful notations. Later on this form can aid you in relocating the source of your data, help you to avoid duplication and can give others, who may be reading your records, information about the source.

Since we do not always wish to photocopy the data from every source, a research extraction sheet can help organize the data. Many of us are already using special census extraction sheets for the different census years.

Once you begin to write a lot of letters and inquiries, a correspondence log will come in quite handy. It can contain information about who you wrote to, when you wrote, whether you sent money and the responses you received.

Try to pick the system and forms that will fit your needs and it will make your genealogical research easier and more enjoyable.

Dennis R. Jenkins

WORKSHOP

Remember the regularly scheduled workshop held each 3rd Thursday in the conference room of the Mesa County Public Library from 1:30 P.M. until 4 P.M.. Anyone interested in family tree climbing is welcome.

GENEALOGY FAIR BRINGS NEW MEMBERS

An estimated 200 persons attended the Genealogy Fair held in the Cabin Fever Room at Mesa Mall June 29th. There were displays covering many areas of assistance for ancestral research here in Grand Junction to the family tree climber.

Eleven new members were added to the Society role and we are anticipating a year of good programs and increased exchange of information.

The new members are Jackie (Louise) Bryan, W. M. French, Gary H. Hesse, Katherine E. Hollinger, Ray E & Shirley B. Johnston, Charles and Eleanor Leggiere, Phillip P. Powers, Marvel Storlie and Kandis Tomlinson. In May Beth Ann Morse, Nelma Striegel and Donna Crosby became new members.

Best wishes go to Wesley and Emma Lou (Perkins) Hurt who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary July 6th. Emma Lou has been a member of the society since its beginning.

Mr. Hurt was born in Fulton County, Mo. and was graduated from high school in 1910 in Erie, Kansas. He operated Hurt Appliance Repair on North Avenue in Grand Junction, Colorado for many years.

Emma Lou was born in Walnut, Kansas, was graduated from Walnut High in 1929, The University of Kansas at Pittsburg in 1962 and the University of Northern Colorado in 1970. She was a librarian with Mesa County Valley School District #51.

The Hurts were married July 6, 1935, in Walnut, Kansas, and moved to Grand Junction in 1962. They have a daughter, Verna Groff of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, one son, John Hurt of Fruita, eight grandchildren and two great grandchildren

VALLEY WIDE ARCHIVES STORAGE

Frank Nieslanik of the Valley Wide Archives Storage conducted a very instructive program for genealogists on June 13th at the Archives storage center located in the Mart Building.

Among the volumes of records stored there are some of Mesa County's oldest, beginning in 1883. Detailed inventories and a good index needs to be done to avoid excessive handling of these fragile irreplaceable documents. There has been discussion of a microfilming project, but without a decision of yet. Let us hear from you if you are interested in becoming a volunteer on these projects.

Research hours at Valley Wide Archive Storage are 8:30 A.M. to 11:30 A.M., Monday through Friday

AT THE LIBRARY

R      The War of the Rebellion: A Compilation of the Official
973.7016      Records of the Union and Confederate Armies
U58 W

The Public Library has had for many years this set of books, 128 volumes in 3 series with perhaps 4 or 5 volumes missing from their shelves.

They were published under the direction of the Honorable Elihu Root, Secy. of War by Brig. Gen. Fred A. Ainsworth, Chief of the Record and Pension Office, War Dept. and Mr. Joseph W. Kirkley.

These books have been recently republished by the National Historical Society in the interest of scholars and libraries who have long needed a reissue of such an indispensable work.

Mesa County Public Library has recently acquired the much needed General Index and Additions and Corrections which covers the entire set in one volume. Look for it on the Civil War Shelf in the reference department.

GRANDMA'S SAMPLER

Genealogical Data from Samplers

AUGUSTA FOSTER

The search for names, dates and places doesn't always lead the genealogist to yellowed pages and fragile documents. Sometimes it can be delicate pieces of needlework, framed and hanging on a wall.

There was a time in history when samplers were popular, especially among young girls learning to do needlework or looking for a way to display their skills with the needle. We find samplers in America, England, Spain, France and a few of the other European countries.

Such a genealogical gem adds a bit more proof to the records of Donna Roberts.

Augusta Foster, age 9, stitched the sampler reproduced below. The original is made of linen, embroidered in pale blue, elaborately designed with rosebuds and the alphabet written in three different types of printing. Augusta is Donna's great grandmother, listed on the ancestor chart that follows.

Do you have one of these hand-stitched samplers among your family heirlooms? We would be interested in hearing about it and recording the information from it.

Mrs. David Berkowitz of Elkins Park, Pennsylvania has a collection of samplers but has been unable to identify most of them. If you recognize any of the makers listed, she would welcome hearing from you through the following address: Dr. Malcolm H. Stern, 300 East 7th Street, New York, New York 10021.
