Discovering Family History: A New Beginner's Magazine

*The following announcement was Written by the publishers of Family
Chronicle and Internet Genealogy*

Discovering Family History, a new Genealogy magazine targeted at beginners will shortly start publishing. A 24 – page preview is included in the March/April issue of Family Chronicle and the April/May issue of Internet Genealogy. A full 56 – page preview issue can be downloaded at <http://www.discoveringfamilyhistory.com/>

Halvor Moorshead, the publisher and editor of all three magazines, says that the seed of the idea for Discovering Family History was sown when Family Chronicle and Internet Genealogy magazines exhibited at an event in Toronto last September, called "The Word on the Street". Some 200,000 people attended this event, put on for those interested in books and literacy.

"We sold plenty of subscriptions to both magazines," said Moorshead, "but I found that I was continually explaining to new subscribers some real genealogy basics steering them to Cyndi's List and other places that listed beginner's courses. These people were smart enough; they just needed something more basic than what we were selling. It was sobering to realize that there might be a big market for a genealogy magazine that dealt with the basics.

"This triggered us to conduct market research among Family Chronicle and Internet Genealogy readers. We sent out questionnaires, via the Internet, to 1,000 readers and were more than pleasantly surprised by the response. A few people said they thought the idea for a beginner's magazine was a bad one, but for each one of these, 12 people were excited by the idea. We had not expected to find that many people, who had been researching their genealogy for many years, still considered themselves beginners. But then we realized that most of us are beginners when we tackle a new area for research. Most of us are beginners in some area or another."

The free online preview issue contains such articles as Free Family History Websites, Obituaries, the Ultimate Guide to Subscription Databases, Who Else is Researching Your Name?, What is a Vital Record?, Citing Sources, a genealogical Case Study, The 10 First Steps, Computer Basics, It's All About Parents, Genealogical Societies, Web 2.0 and Making Sense of the US Census. The articles are targeted at beginners, but Moorshead says that great care has been taken not to talk down to the reader. "I consider myself a fairly experienced genealogist but I continue to come across aspects of research that bewildered me. For example, until recently I had never investigated land records, I would find a basic article on this subject very useful", said Moorshead.

Discovering Family History will be published six times a year. There is an introductory subscription rate of $20 per year (same rate for the US and Canada). For more information visit the magazine's website <http://www.discoveringfamilyhistory.com/>

Faith C. Stebbins, 81, a 55 – year resident of Grand Junction, passed from this life on December 24, 2007. She was born April 23, 1926 in a sod house north of Ruleton, Kansas, the oldest child of Floyd M. and Thema C. Kemp. She graduated from Sherman County High School in 1944 and attended the College of Emporia, Emporia, Kansas. She was a seamstress at Liff's Ready-to-wear until she retired in 1998.

She married Robert F. Stebbins on September 2, 1945. They lived in Kansas, New Mexico, and several locations in Colorado before moving to the Grand Valley in the early 1950's. They were divorced in 1983, and he died February 14, 2007.

Faith was a member of the First Presbyterian Church where she served as an Elder and belonged to the Faith Circle Bible Study Group. Also, she taught Sunday school for six years and served as Church School Superintendent for 12 years.

Faith was a charter member of Child and Migrant Services and served on its board for 30 years with involvement spanning 50 years. She was particularly proud of the accomplishments of this organization.

Her involvement with the Mesa County Fair started as a 4-H club leader, and she received the 4-H Award of the Silver Clover for her years of service as a 4-H leader. She was the Open Class Superintendent of the Mesa County for 14 years and served for three years on the Fair Board. She also was a Club Scout leader for many years and was a member of the American-German Club.

In 2003 she received the North Star Award from the National Association for Family and Community Education for her efforts with the Work-A-Lot Club of which she was a 25 year member.

Genealogy was her main hobby and she belonged to several genealogy societies and historical organizations. She also enjoyed various types of needlework and crafts, reading and music.

Faith is survived by an Aunt Frances Stephens, of Goodland, Kansas; a daughter Janet C. Smith of Grand Junction; a son Maurice Stebbins of Tucson, Arizona. Four grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren also survive as well as numerous cousins.

Cremation has taken place. Her ashes will be buried next to her parents and brother at Goodland, Kansas. A memorial service to celebrate her life will be held at 1:00 p.m., Saturday, January 19 at Martin Mortuary Chapel, 550 North Avenue, Grand Junction.

In Lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial donations be given to the Hospice & Palliative Care of Western Colorado Building Fund, 2754 Compass Drive, Suite 377, Grand Junction, CO., 81506.
