Mesa County Genealogical Society's Library

From The Librarians

If you have visited the Genealogical Society's Library lately you may have sensed a spirit of change and reorganization in the air. Located on the second floor of the Museum of the Western Slope this collection is open to Society members and the general public. The Museum's Resource Collection is also located in the same room. Co-Librarians Linda Garey and Kay Oxer, with volunteer Judi Maki, have begun work on organizing and shifting the collection, checking materials for duplicates, and evolving a systematic approach for processing, cataloging, and publicizing the collection's resources. National, regional, and state newsletters have been shifted and arranged based on the Dewey Decimal System of Classification. This is the same classification system used by the LDS Family History Center in Salt Lake, Utah. Grand Junction Polk Directories that duplicate the Museum's holdings have been donated to Mesa State. Duplicate newsletters have been pulled and will be offered to other organizations to free space for future acquisitions. Donations and memorial funds will allow for the purchase of new reference tools for the Library. Stay tuned for further developments and be sure to drop-in and get acquainted with resources close at hand.
